

NICE THINGS FOR CHRISTMAS.

The Times' Advertisers Supplying the Holiday Trade

With Everything Necessary for Elegant and Appropriate Christmas Presents—What Can be Seen and Purchased in the Stores of the Advertisers in The Times: The Grocers Will Help the Local Market to Furnish Good Christmas Dinners.

The show windows of the merchants and business men of enterprising Roanoke who advertise in The Times are worth a long wade through the slush and snow to see. In some especially great artistic taste is displayed. All The Times' advertisers are doing a rushing Christmas business, a verification of the fact that advertising in The Times pays.

J. R. Greene & Co., the Jefferson street clothiers, can fix a man up with mighty spruce for Christmas. Just glance at their assortment through the window if you want to convince yourself of the fact.

You can get the nicest big dolls and little dolls, to suit any sized girl that hasn't yet passed the dollhood period, at Snyder & MacLain's, 134 Salem avenue. "Christmas comes but once a year," and you know you can't do without mince pie. Bright & Penn have carloads and everything in the grocery line.

The Star Clothing House is selling out their gents' furnishing and clothing at first cost; 53 Salem avenue.

Stanta Claus and his reindeer have stalled in Rosenbaum's show window. Ladies will open their eyes if they look in the other window.

If you carry a fountain pen awhile you will find it "indispen-sible." D. L. Solomon can supply you.

Smith's temple of fancy defies description. Their holiday goods are as the stars of heaven for multitude.

Drop in at Cohn's, and see if you can't pick out a suit from one of his counters. He can "suit" you.

Dress suits for Christmas balls are to be had at Frank Brothers' on Jefferson avenue, in the Wright block.

Your sweetheart, fair maid, would rather have your picture for Christmas than anything else in the world except you. Eutsler will take it, Salem avenue.

The Capital and Labor Clothing House, in the Kirk building, is the place to get overcoats or a nice suit of clothes.

E. H. Stewart & Co., the proprietors of the mammoth furniture store fronting on Salem avenue and Campbell street, have an elegant assortment of all kinds of chinaware and pieces of furniture that make appropriate Christmas presents.

The Roanoke Drug Company has a beautiful line of albums and toilet sets. A pair of slippers for evening makes an acceptable present to husbands and fathers. Boston Foot and Shoe Store has a large supply.

Old King Cole was a merry old soul, and a merry old soul was he, he called for his pipe, he called for his bowl—and get it at Bayliss'.

Marie Prescott will be here Christmas, and will bring out opera glasses. Pickens has a great variety, and they will make acceptable presents.

Confections and groceries necessary for Christmas will be supplied in any quantity by L. H. Brugh.

James Lawson has a full supply of Christmas cheer.

If you want to make your wife or sister a Christmas present, before purchasing examine the beautiful silks displayed at the store of Helronimus & Brugh.

C. R. Wertz is ready for Christmas with a large supply of confections of every variety.

Everybody drinks and many people drink tea and coffee during the Christmas holidays, as well as at other times. Kromm's tea store is well supplied for the Christmas trade.

W. W. Marston, the grocer, has filled his shelves and counters with good things of every variety and is supplying his large trade with the best that is going.

The Backus's dry goods store is full of Christmas novelties with something to please everybody.

At Mr. Harrison's jewelry store is a great variety of articles that make beautiful and appropriate Christmas presents for everybody.

From the large supply of knives at Evans & Chalmers a nice present for the boys may be selected.

C. F. Blount, always progressive, has kept up in the race to supply Roanoke with nice groceries for Christmas. His jellies will help out many Christmas dinners.

When you have purchased your Christmas presents, you can have them delivered to any part of the city by the Magic City Transfer Company.

You are in a bad fix.

But we will cure you if you will pay us. W. E. EUTSLER, Photographer, No. 23 SALEM AVE., IS THE PLACE TO GO WHEN YOU WANT YOUR PICTURE TAKEN.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN THE CITY OF ROANOKE.

By virtue of a deed of trust executed to me by Florence V. Moffett, dated October 17th, 1888, and recorded in the Clerk's office of the Hustings Court of the city of Roanoke, deed book 17, page 62, to secure the West End Land Company the sum of forty-six hundred and fifty dollars, evidenced by three certain negotiable notes of 1,550 dollars each, with interest from date, and payable in one, two and three years from October 17th, 1888; and, whereas, the said Florence V. Moffett being in default as to the first and second payments, and being requested by the beneficiary so to do, I will sell at public auction on MONDAY THE 12TH DAY OF JANUARY, 1891, the following described property, to-wit, situated in that beautiful part of Roanoke known as West End, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

No. 1. Beginning at the northwest corner of Washington avenue and D street, thence with Washington avenue north 74 degrees, 419 feet to E street; thence with E street north 15 degrees, 133 feet to an alley; thence with the same south 74 degrees, 402 feet to D street; thence with same south 9 degrees, 133 feet to the beginning, known as lots 9 to 16, both inclusive, block 11.

No. 2. Beginning at the northwest corner of Washington avenue and E streets, thence with Washington avenue north 74 degrees, 250 feet to a point; thence north 15 degrees east, 133 feet to an alley; thence with same south 74 degrees, 250 feet to E street; thence with E street south 15 degrees, 133 feet to the beginning, known as lots 9 to 13, both inclusive, block 12.

No. 3. Beginning at the southwest corner of Washington avenue and D streets, thence with Washington avenue north 74 degrees, 171 feet to a point; thence south 15 degrees, 118 feet to a point; thence south 68 degrees, 139 feet to a point; thence south 70 degrees, 53 feet to D street; thence with D street north 9 degrees, 169 feet to the beginning.

Terms: Cash enough to cover costs of sale and to pay the past due notes and interest, amounting to $3,187.12 at this date, and the sum of $1,550, payable on the 17th day of October, 1891, with interest from 17th day of October, 1888. Balance in one and two years from day of sale, in equal installments, with interest. This is some of the most desirable property that has been offered for sale in the city of Roanoke. Investors are especially invited.
